

Lynn Bullard

Congressional District 2 Committee-Member

Lynn is an educator and a school administrator with 27 years of experience. He also has 30 years of service as a Christian minister. He has taught American History at Gans Public High School and is AP – Advanced Placement Certified. He taught Financial Concepts, Investing and Money Management in grades 5-8 at Albion Public School. He taught Special Education at Hodgen and Gans Public Schools. He was the Administrative Assistant/Director of Special Education at Gans Public School.

He served as Principal of Howe Public School for 2 years; Superintendent of Fanshawe Public School for 7 years and later Superintendent of Albion Public School for 7 years. His family has been in Leflore County since 1870. He has researched family history in Eastern Oklahoma and their place in American History, which he loves. He has twins who will graduate from the public school system this year.

Lynn was graduated from Wister High School. He earned an Associate of Science degree from Carl Albert Junior College, Poteau; a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Finance from Northeastern State University, Tahlequah; a Master degree in Special Education and completed Post-Secondary work to become- Elementary Principal, Secondary Principal, and Superintendent. He is a member of the Mayflower Society: General Society of Mayflower Descendants; National Rifle Association; International Texas Longhorn Association; Kappa Delta Pi National Honor Society and a 1996 member of Who's Who Among American Teachers.

Lynn served as Congressional District Chairman for the Republican Party; Member of the Republican State Executive Committee; District and State Committee man; Vice Chairman of the Republican Party Congressional District; Emcee of the Leflore County 2012 Congressional Debate and many other political events.

Lynn has retired from school administration. He works in Ministry as Senior Pastor at the First Assembly of God Church in Wilburton, Oklahoma. Lynn is the Chairman of the Latimer County Republican Party. He is a member of the OKGOP Committee on Education.

