

Dr. Vickie Foster

Congressional District 3 Committee-Member

Vickie Foster is a former assistant professor of special education at Northeastern State University and an administrator for the Oklahoma State Department of Education. She is also a former special education teacher, psychometrist, school psychologist, and Coordinator of Disabilities for Tulsa Technology Center.

Vickie received a bachelor's degree in Special Education from Oklahoma State University, a master's degree from Lesley College in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and a doctorate of education in Occupational and Adult Education from Oklahoma State University.

Vickie's 40-year career was spent in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She graduated from Cordell High School and is currently enjoying retirement residing in her hometown of Cordell, Oklahoma. Vickie is a member of the OKGOP Committee on Education.

