†"PAC" here refers to a committee that makes contributions to other federal political committees. Independent expenditure-only political committees (sometimes called "Super PACs") may accept unlimited contributions, including from corporations and labor organizations.

‡ The limits in this column apply to a national party committee's accounts for: (i) the presidential nominating convention; (ii) election recounts and contests and other legal proceedings; and (iii) national party headquarters buildings. A party's national committee, Senate campaign committee and House campaign committee are each considered separate national party committees with separate limits. Only a national party committee, not the parties' national congressional campaign committees, may have an account for the presidential nominating convention.

Additionally, a national party committee and its Senatorial campaign committee may contribute up to $62,000 combined per campaign to each Senate candidate. 110.2(e).
